RECORDING ARTIST / SONGWRITER

Jessie released her FACTOR funded debut album Reckless Heart in September 2016 produced by award-winning producer J. Richard Hutt (Northern Pikes, Tom Cochrane, Jamie Warren) and her highly anticipated sophomore, Burning Back, in November 2023. This seven song EP, featuring tropical sassy song I Can Be Your Margarita as well as female power anthem Just A Number, was nominated for second ballot at CMAOntario awards for Album of the Year (2024).

Growing up in Kingston Ontario, Jessie found her roots performing at local country singing competitions. Since moving from Kingston to Kitchener in 2012, Jessie has been headlining venues and festivals across Ontario including Meadows Music Festival, Harrow Fair, Manitoulin Country Fest, and JUNO Host City Music Exchange. Jessie has played alongside some of the best in Canadian country music, including Dallas Smith, James Barker Band, Michelle Wright, and Dan Davidson. Also growing her resume as a background vocalist, Jessie is a fixture in other recording artist's band including Jason Blaine.

Recognized for her songwriter's mind and performer's heart, Jessie has been nominated for Country Music Association of Ontario final ballot (Breakthrough Artist of the Year, Female Vocalist of the Year, Album of the Year (Burning Back), 2024), Waterloo Record Reader's Choice award (Local Artist and Local Entertainer, 2020-2023), Jose Award Nominations (USA) (Rising Star (Female), Vocalist of the Year (Female), Music Video of the Year (I Can Be Your Margarita) and Kitchener-Waterloo Woman of the Year (2023). Jessie's music has been in rotation on Sirius XM, CBC radio and several other indie and BDS stations across Canada, in addition to stations in the United States, Australia, China, New Zealand and Germany.

Since 2020, Jessie has been growing her release catalogue as a writer to include singles from artists such as Jamie Warren, Amanda Kind, Katy Topham, Jake Davey, David Madras, Angelica Appelman, Peter Peres, Taylor Wilson and The Griffin Brothers.

Back-home community values have always been at the centre of Jessie's career. Back in 2022, Jessie created an annual Ugly Sweater Christmas Party which raises money and collects food for local families around Christmas. Last year alone, she collected 127lbs of food and raised over $600 for the Food Bank of Waterloo Region. She also has been an artist representing the Lullaby Project in Waterloo Region. Partnered with Carnegie Hall and Roy Thompson Hall, this project pairs new and expectant parents with artists to write/record personal lullabies for their babies. Her division is currently working with mothers from Grand Valley Institution for Women and Monica House. Jessie also advocates for the local arts scene serving on judging panels for artist development competitions including The Shot, and has sat as a juror for the City of Kitchener's Create Connect Grant giving funding to local artists and their projects.
